Rhonda L. Reda serves as Executive Director of the Ohio Oil and Gas Energy Education Program (OOGEEP) and the Ohio Oil and Gas Energy Education Foundation (Foundation). Ms. Reda helped form the organization in 1997. Prior to OOGEEP, Ms. Reda served as Vice President, Internal Affairs and Public Information for the Ohio Oil and Gas Association for more than a decade. Ms. Reda has also worked for several oil and gas companies including CGAS Exploration, Inc., Phillip Brown Oil Well Services, Inc., and Halwell/ Energy Omega, Inc. Collectively, she has more than twenty six years of experience in the crude oil and natural gas industry.

Ms. Reda currently serves on the Public Outreach Committee of the Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission (IOGCC) and the Communications Committee for the Independent Petroleum Association of America (IPAA). She is an active member of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, the Society of Petroleum Engineers and the Ohio Geological Society. Ms. Reda served on the White House Task Force on Energy Education, and has received numerous state and national awards for OOGEEP's efforts including: Ohio Oil and Gas Association's Oilfield Patriot Award, American Association of Petroleum Geologists' Eastern Section's Presidential Award for Public Outreach, Friend of Science Award from the Science Council of Ohio, EPA's Ohio Environmental Education Award for Outstanding Program, World Oil Runner Up for Best Public Outreach Program, Ohio Department of Natural Resources' Minerals Education Award, Southeastern Ohio Oil and Gas Association's Work Horse Award, Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission's Public Outreach Stewardship Award, Columbus Business First's "Who's Who in Energy," and Crain's "Power Players Who Are Guiding Ohio Shale." Ms. Reda is a graduate of both Ohio University and Edison State College. She lives with her husband of 27 years, and their daughter and son.
